

Průběh obhajoby: The candidate presented his thesis convincingly. It is an original and very serious piece of research, which is mastered by the author. He accepted criticism as justified and explained the shortcomings. In the general debate he has responded to questions of public use of space of the park and influence of the visit of Ch. Le Corbusier in Bogotá. The research topic and sources can be expanded in the future, since they can have strong appeal for academic and large public.
