

Abstract:

- Title: Analysis of the game performance in relation to different types of the match mini-basketball players.
- Objectives: The objective of this study is analysis and comparison of the selected performance indicators of the player in relation to the current competition system in the Czech minibasketball (5x5 vs 3x3 with one basket).
- Methods: As a research method, the method of observation of the video recordings. Using the basic statistic and arithmetic methods, the measured data were processed statistically and consequently, graphically also.
- Results: It was discovered that frequency of selected performance indicators is higher, for the whole team as well as individual players in form of modified minibasketball 3x3, in most cases.
- Key words: 5x5, 3x3, performance indicators, modification, U11, U12, Basketáři TJ Sokol Josefov