

ABSTRACT:

Theme of this thesis is to determine the current state of canoeing courses organized by secondary schools in the Central region. Thesis is focused on the detailed arrangements of courses, their organization and other information associated with this. The author also tries form the information and legislative facts to determine how it should ideally look like such a course.