

Abstract

The text deals with the understanding of the convergence behaviour of the GMRES method. The first part reviews results formulated for the linear algebraic finite-dimensional problem $Ax = b$. The second part revisits the question on whether the algebraic GMRES behaviour can be analyzed using bounded operators on an infinite-dimensional Hilbert spaces.