

Abstract: The aim of this thesis is to find a solution of the three lakes problem and to prove its correctness. Three lakes problem (Lakes of Wada) consists in construction of three open connected sets in plane, which are disjoint and have the same boundary. We will show the existence of such sets and moreover we will prove, that it is even possible for these sets to be path connected.