

Abstract

The bachelor thesis focuses on the castle in Náměšť nad Oslavou and the Žerotín Family in the time of renaissance. The content of this thesis is a historical and architectural development of the castle and its sculptural decoration. Part of the text will be also dedicated to the Žerotín family, history of Náměšť nad Oslavou. I will also mention the castle in Rosice. They both are built in the renaissance era and have some architectonical and sculptural similarities. The work focuses on the times of late 16th and early 17th centuries – it is time of first Habsburgs on the Czech throne. Photos of the Náměšť castle and other pictures are at the end of this works.
