

Abstract

This Bachelor thesis deals with analysis of historical texts and connecting scholarly literature with topic of poaching in 18. century on the south of Bohemia. It looks for answers to the questions: Why people were poaching and how? It deals with individual poachers, studying of their lives and punishments of their offences. It analyses of statute-book and law orders be connecting with poaching. It provides brief of the wals of hunting and poaching.