

Church in the life and thought of Oto Mádr.

The thesis portrays the implicit ecclesiology of the Czech theologian and priest Oto Mádr. It highlights Mádr's key attitudes in the context of his life. It traces his main and enduring ecclesiological contributions and shows where his thought could be further developed. The method of research is bi-polar paradox applied on the signs of the Church.