

Abstrakt

Title: Success Evaluation of the individual game activities on the positions Universal of eight best volleyball teams at the woman´s tournament at the Olympic Games in London in 2012

Author: Eva Němcová

Department: Department of physical training

Supervisor: PaedDr. Ladislav Pokorný, Katedra tělesné výchovy Pedagogické fakulty Univerzity Karlovy v Praze, M.D.Rettigové 4, 116 39 Praha 1

Abstract: The topic of the diploma thesis is Success Evaluation of the individual game activities on the positions Universal of eight best volleyball teams at the woman´s tournament at the Olympic Games in London in 2012. The source for the survey were video recordings of individual matches at the Olympic Games in London in 2012. The data were statistically assessed and the results were taken into consideration in the survey. The aim of the thesis was to highlight perspectives of the progress of the top volleyball women players. The educational material for teachers and coaches of volleyball the the secondary schools and sport-oriented grammar schools is attached to the thesis.

Key words: volleyball, game activities of individuals, success, attack, block, service, performance