

Abstract

The subject of the rigorous work "The Relationship of the Czech State towards the Holy Roman Empire based on the Golden Bull of Sicily and the Golden Bull of Charles IV" is a juristic analysis of the Golden Bull of Sicily from 1212 and the Golden Bull of Charles IV from 1356. The first part of the work addresses the general issues of the Golden Bull of Sicily and the historical circumstances preceding this decree. The second part focuses on the Golden Bull of Charles IV and in particular on the general interpretation of this code of law, as well as on the situation preceding its issuing. The last part contains the exact wordings of this decree and code of law and their legal analyses.
