

This diploma work has for its object an existence of enterprise in the České Budějovice area a Eormation of professional constitutionalism in half of 19th century during an introduction oE the new civil and criminal judicial system in 1895 - 1896 years and declaration of republic until the disapperance oE trades and nationalization in 1950 year.

Diplomatic part oE this work occupies itseIE with office agenda arising from the relations between offices and tradesmen or their firms. It has a respect with regard to very high quantity of written material, above aU to two institutions, namely Regional Commercial Lawcourt and also the Chember of Commerce and Industry; both with headquartes in České Budějovice.

The last part refers to usmg of legalising means, also the seals and stamps in diplomatic contact oE trade associations with state or professional offices, mainly with the commercial lawcourt. This short sigillographic excursion does its best to map two halfcenturies.