

Klára Nechvílová: The Holy Trinity Church in Kutná Hora – Building and History. Praha 2015.

Abstract

This thesis deals with the Holy Trinity Church in Kutná Hora. The work focuses on the architecture of the building, summarizes current research on the church and compares it with contemporary architecture in Kutná Hora area with particular attention to the significant restoration at the end of the 19th century.

The church was probably built in the second decade of the 15th century, than between 1488 and 1504 underwent modifications and became the burial chapel of the Lords of Vrchoviště. In the case of dating and circumstances of the building's foundation, however, does not prevail complete agreement among the researchers. At the end of the 19th century, the church was restored in a gothic style under Ludvík Lábler's leading.

The aim of this work is to accumulate all available information about the Holy Trinity Church in Kutná Hora and to try to approach the solution of the church foundation dating problem based on stylistic parallels search.

Keywords

Kutná Hora, The Holy Trinity Church in Kutná Hora, prehussite architecture, Ludvík Lábler, bell, Hrádek