

The presentation of the results of master's research was succeeded by reports of reviewers. All three were very positive appreciating student's work with sources and methodological framing. In the discussion the problem of conflicts, tensions and failures, which are not noticed in memoirs or expert discourse have been raised. The student responds with knowledge and excellent orientation in the field. The thesis is focused on topic which deserves publication.

Klasifikace obhajoby: velmi dobře (100%)