

The text deals with migration policy. The paper examines the ethical justification for restrictions on migration policy. Follows sections of the historic migration. It focuses on the theme of migration in the biblical context and it try to find basis for restrictions on migration policy in the present.