Abstract: This thesis introduces a generator which takes as its input a definition k-kind grammar and creates source code of analyzer or translator for the language generated by this kind grammar. Opposed to traditional $LL(k)$ grammars, k-kind grammars allow usage of direct left recursion in its rules. This allows for more comfortable and clearer formulation of input grammar rules.