

Abstract: The bachelor's work concerns with problems of children in difficult situation in their life. In the concrete it focuses on the process of support and therapy work with children in organizations providing social services. First part describes the children therapy specificity according to available profesional literature. Then I focus on techniques and methods used by professionals. In second part I analyse interviews with professional respondents from organizations providing social services. Main target is to find out effective factors in children therapy.