

Abstract

Bachelor Thesis The Character and Changes of Josef Čapek's Fiction deals with selected literary work of Josef Čapek. It refers to motives and technique which pervades the author's literary production. Further it outlines Čapek's artistic development. Last but not least it indicates a connection between his literary work, his fine art work and his reflection essays on art.