

Summary

Title of the work: Education of Sport Management at Charles University in comparison with use

Objectives of the work: Comparison of the structure of taught subjects with its real usage in the practise of the manager of the sport club and with valid findings of the theory of management. Comparison of different results in non-profit organization and profit organizations. Creation of own syllabus according to standards of European Union.

Method: Questionnaire research among leaders of sport clubs of all levels and all forms.

Results: They give notice about the structure of required knowledge of managers in Czech environ and compare this structure with the theory of management.

Key words: structure of managerial activities, characteristics of the manager, roles of managers, usage of taught subjects, syllabus