The thesis deals with the issue of burnout among workers low-threshold club for youth. Its aim is to determine what area workers perceive as risky given the potential burnout. Theoretical part introduces concepts such as burnout, risk factors, symptoms of burnout. Research part investigates specific areas of risk burnout workers low-threshold club for children and youth.