

The diploma thesis "The Selective Concepts of Alternative Pre-primary Education" focuses on three pedagogical concepts of preschool education in the Czech Republic. First part describes development of nursery schools both in the Czech Republic and abroad, their transformation and the current form. Next chapters deal with the issue of child and preschool pedagogue personalities.

The object of my diploma thesis is to describe the three most prevalent concepts of alternative kindergartens, analyze their ideological basis and demonstrate their advantages and problems.