

Abstract

The topic of my diploma thesis is child prostitution and its prevention. The aim of this diploma thesis is the overview study of social work with this target group based on the expertise literature and the brief illustration of this phenomenon based on the interview with an expert and a case study of girl, who used to be a victim of a commercial child sexual exploitation.

I focused mainly on social work with this target group, the methods and therapy of the victims. Also I presented the description of this phenomenon and the prevention possibilities.

I solved the problem with an interview with an expert and a case study. The chosen methodology of elaboration was an analysis of documents, analysis of the interview and the case study.

The diploma thesis presents a compilation of suggestions for social work with this target group based on the expertise literature and the interview with an expert and a case study. The next benefit is a compilation of suggestions for prevention of the prostitution of youth. On the known data it is possible to continue to study this phenomenon, this diploma thesis is an appropriate introduction into this study.
