The work dedicates the region of Podblanicko as an outdoor activity of didactic territory. The description of five concrete excursions follows with a universal characterization of the region. The didactic part is worked by the author theoretically of the view of the General Educational Programme and extra concrete School Educational Programme. In the work, there is dedicated a special consideration to the concrete special didactics of individual excursions including author’s writing of the working folio for the geological excursion.