ABSTRACT:

The thesis – Contemporary art at school – post internet age is about current arts occasions, concretely Post internet art. I try to state and define this kind of art and place post internet art to context with art education afterwards. Specific art pieces and their similarities in related zones of art are reflected in didactic transformations.

The research is focused on difficulties, which can come into the art education lessons. It is realized with different methods, on different kind of school.

In conclusion my original art piece is bringing more comprehensive knowledge about post internet art.
