

Abstract:

The main goal of this work is to analyse travelogues of Czech authors about Macedonia. In these texts the thesis is searching for opinions and comments about the “Macedonian Question” which is trying to reconstruct. The first part focuses on common development and basic questions about the phenomenon which moved foreign policy of the Balkans for years. The second part introduces in short basic view of the question in Czech lands and different points of view which you could found in the texts of Czech authors. The last part analyse in detail travelogue (not political pamphlets or popular-science texts) literature with focus on the “Macedonian Question” with emphasis on the works of Emanuel Fait, Ludvík Kuba and Julius Komárek.
