

The diploma thesis deals with scholastic maturity and preparedness. It explores the current level of awareness in this area among both the pedagogical and general parental public and gives an analyzing overview of press articles covering the topic.