

This diploma thesis is focused on development of kindergarten from XIXth century to the beginning of the XXth century. It also describes results of an reformative movement on the kindegarten education and the influence of the reformer Ida Jarnikova on the teory and working practices of the kindergarten educational system.