

Abstract

This thesis is about The Czech Social Democratic Party and its activities between 1989 and 1998 focusing on those happening in Kutna Hora district. The aim is to introduce not so well known topic in a comprehensive way – motions of Kutna Hora executive district committee together with descriptions of peoples' personal lives acting in the field of Czech Social Democratic Party.

National development of the Czech Social Democratic Party and its influence on Kutna Hora executive district committee has been described.

The methods used in processing of this thesis were: exploration of the archival documents, literature research focused on the topic and oral history.

Summary of Kutna Hora executive district committee activities as well as reminder of people who were important for the history of Kutna Hora's Czech Social Democratic Party is, in my opinion, the merit of the thesis.
