

Summary

Beachelor's work has name: Solution of migration of people without houses to capital city- Prague, through the work of the social curator. My work describes the problem of homelessness through the work of the social curator. Target of Beachelor's work Is describes solution of homesless through the work of the social curators in Prague and find size od the migration tendency by regions of the Czech Republic, reasons, who's bring homesless people to leave from the permanent residence to Prague.

Beachelor's work has tree Basic theoretical parts. Firts part Is about discribes phenonon of homesless like border expression of social exclusion and discribes attitudes And activity of village with extended effectiveness in process of homelessness solutions. In the third chapter of Beachelor's work describes work of social curators from two views, with focus on practical work with clients and coordination activity. In the practical part, I present the course And results of the research survay, which Is based on the questionnaire survey.