

This Bachelor Thesis titled "Care subsidy - Social Investigation and Its Success in the Proceedings of the Proposals for Change and Reassessment of the Claim" consists of a theoretical and a practical part.

The theoretical part explains some concepts and describes the course of the entire process of the application for care subsidy focusing on social research. The practical part contains mainly individual examples of social investigations and their course as well as the results of the whole process, including the comparison of the proposals of the social investigation with the assessment of the medical assessment service.