

Annotation

Bachelor thesis with the title Religious education of first elementary school children in the Church of Brethren consists of eight chapters. The first chapter explains the topicality of the problems and the basic concepts. The second chapter focuses on the documents of the Church of Brethren that relate to the religious education of children. The third chapter deals with professional and popularization texts from the members of the Church of Brethren regarding religious teaching and education of children. The fourth chapter presents the activities of the Children's department on the basis of available written information. The fifth chapter adds information to the Children's department through semi-structured interviews. The sixth chapter focuses on church curricula and textbooks before 1989. The seventh chapter presents educational materials using by the Church after 1989. The eighth chapter contains of a short reflection of the religious education of of first elementary school children in the Church of Brethren.