

Abstract

This thesis deals with the revision of archaeological research at Stará Kouřim. This locality was excavated between 1948 and 1957 by M. Šolle. Sixty years after the end of the Stará Kouřim research, some conclusions need to be reinterpreted. The paper was mainly focused on the revision of the middle fortifications research and brought new, unpublished results.

Key words: early middle age, hillfort, fortification, revision, ceramic, Old Kouřim.
