

Abstract

Position of secured creditor and satisfaction of his claim in insolvency proceedings

The aim of the thesis is analysis of secured creditor and his position during the proceeding and process of satisfaction of his claim registered in insolvency proceeding. The purpose of this thesis is to focus on current as well as practical issues. The scope of the thesis is systematically arranged in five chapters, describing the institute of process entities, the position of secured creditor, the satisfaction of secured creditor together with the contrary situation, i.e. the claim of secured creditor is not satisfied, and finally the position of secured creditor after the end of insolvency proceeding. The thesis brings a whole notion of chosen issue.