

The aim of bachelor work is to describe burial site in northern Saqqara from the 1st to the 3rd dynasty and to summarize topography of the area together with description of both substructure and superstructure of the tombs. The author will focus on development of architectural elements, infrastructure and also on burial equipment. Then will concentrate on social status of the tomb owners and socioeconomic relations of that time which could have set basis for the Old Kingdom.