This thesis treats about the life of French educator Célestin Freinet and his activity on the educational field. The first part of the thesis is focused on the life track, on demarcation of important moments in his professional progression and then, by various visual angles, on Freinet's pedagogy principles. The second part which is underpinned by personal experience points out the practical use of one of the educational techniques at the elementary school in Paris.