

Abstact

Questions of role and problems rural areas have achieved growing interest in recent year. State government try to find succesfull program to help this areas. One of this type of state's project is Program of rural renewal, which originate in Germany and Austria. Renewal means in this case renovation of all main aspect of development. This Program started in Czech republic in 1994. This paper is concerned with relationship between Program of renovation rural areas and rural municipalities. This paper try to find answer on the question: How is Program contirbuted to succesfull progress of rural municipalities?