

My paper deals mainly with the topic of financial aid from the state for families with young or many children. All allotments and services directed to a family as a whole that help family with education and upbringing of children are described.