

This diploma thesis deals with the topic of Priest's searching within finding his own way for God's leadership, priest as a healer of body and soul of an individual, a family and society.