

The subject of this diploma work is pre - school education of children from socio - culturally disadvantaged backgrounds. The autor is purposefully aiming at children from the Romany Gypsy minority group. The author's aim is to attempt mapping the topical state of pre - school education of these children and to inquire into the attitudes and opinions of pre - school teachers and Romany Gypsy patente on this issue.