

Abstract

Bachelor thesis „The Beginning, Transformation and the Present of Radio Junior“ describes in detail new, independent radio station of the Czech Radio for children. First chapter is focused on the historical and legal background of broadcasting for children. Second chapter aims at the circumstances of the beginnings of this radio station. Third chapter is mapping the evolution of Radio Junior, including the description of broadcasted programs, its activities and the further direction of evolution.