

Theme of this work is individuation and evolution of the human identity in terms of primary relationship structure between child and mother and farther personatity. The invididuation has direct connection to the human identity and the evolution of the human identity has direct connection to the relationship with mother and farther.