The title of the bachelor thesis:
Case study of patient with Multiple Sclerosis disease.

The goal of the bachelor thesis:
This thesis involves a case study approach for a patient with Multiple Sclerosis. The thesis is divided into theoretical part which describes the background of Multiple Sclerosis. The other part is special part, which contains all the work I have done with my patient, all the examinations, conclusions, therapies and results.

5. Comments and questions to answer:

Student worked independently during practise. Considering short period of time and patient diagnose, that student had, thesis fulfills all requirements. In some parts of the thesis text or tables are badly spread between pages e.g. pages 95/96. Questions: For what diagnosis do we use Kenny method? What does WalkAide device do?

6. Recommendation for defence: NO YES

7. Designed classificatory degree Excellent (according to student's presentation/defence)
