

ABSTRACT

This bachelor thesis is aimed at preventive action against children injuries, which could occur in nursery school. Goal of this bachelor thesis is found out if workers of nursery school are educated in prevention of preschool injuries and if they are capable to provide first aid. Comperation of this knowlage was focused on numery schools in Prague 6.

In theoretical part bachelor thesis are described most common preschool injuries happend in nursery school, active and passive primary, secondary prevention childhood injuries, injuries treatment and first aid providing.

Practical part is aimed at collection of information from questionnaire survey, which was identitified to educationalists in some chosen nursary school in Prague 6. Results were compared between each others.

KEYWORDS

Active prevention, passive prevention, primary prevention, secondary prevention, preschool childhood injuries, firs aid