The bachelor's work „Internet reviews of a biographical film Masaryk and users' online comments in Česko-Slovenská filmová databáze“ depicts and analyses a biographical and historical film Masaryk both with users' online comments in Česko-Slovenská filmová database (CSFD.cz) and reviews, especially on the websites MovieZone.cz, Filmová databáze (FDb.cz), Kinobox.cz, and Filmserver.cz. Comparing all the comments and reviews, the characteristic features of the film as well as its specifics in terms of biographical genre are demonstrated. The work also compares the film's plot with real events as they actually occurred.

A theoretical part precedes the analysis so it can have a factual basis. The work characterises film as a dramatic art, specifies a biographical genre as a whole and describes the evolution of a Czech film criticism, including its transition from printed to online form.

Attention is also given to Jan Masaryk himself – his persona, career and legacy. Quantitative research shows how well today's Czech public knows Jan Masaryk and events depicted in the film.
