

In this thesis we analyze symmetry operators for partial differential operators, in particular for Laplace and Helmholtz operators in dimension two and three. In both cases an important object is the Lie algebra of the Euclidean group. Separated solutions for partial differential operators are defined and illustrated for both of the mentioned operators. Examples of coordinate systems are listed, in which the solution separates.