

Abstract: The aim of the thesis is to assess the level of technique of the swimming method character in children of the age category 4 to 6 years. Based on the observations and evaluation scale, define the most commonly occurring errors in the swim method character and on the children of the swim partition. Based on these findings, establish a training plan aimed at eliminating these errors. Subsequent evaluation of the progress of children in the age category (4-6).