

Abstract

Title: Organization and composition of outdoor program for the open air schools

Objectives: Main objective of this thesis is to compose suitable outdoor program for open air schools for children groups within age 6 to 10. The goal of this new program is more efficient use of time during open air schools with focus on development of abilities, skills, physical and psychical strength, communication among children and social interaction.

Methods: In this thesis will be used quantitative research method, written questioning method. Acquired data analysis will be used as background for development of outdoor program for open air schools for children groups within age 6 to 10.

Outcome: Benefit of this thesis will be development of new outdoor program for open air schools for children groups within age 6 to 10 which will be passed on to travel agency offering this kind of programs.

Key words: game, child, open air school, nature, teacher, instructor