

Annotation

The bachelor's thesis is engaged to patient's personal illness perception. It mapsover specialized publication talking about understanding the patient's wiew of the illness. The thesis extract research works made by questionnaires to find out personal concept of multiple myeloma diagnosis. And pointed to that uniqueness of perception every single person. Those cases under-examination are from 1st Intern Hematooncology Clinic in General Teaching Hospital in Prague.