

Abstract:

The bachelor thesis deals with the dual idea of the National Theater, as described by Jan Patočka in his study “K ,ideji národního divadla“. The aim of the thesis is to identify the idea (or ideas) of the National Theater, and by using secondary literature to follow its development and changes from its birth to reflection in the functioning of the National Theater, beginning with the first seasons after reopening in 1883.