

Annotation

Bachelor's thesis is discussing about problem with medical and nursing documentatation. There are skretch in problems with implementig of nursing documentation to practise, their administration and next checking. It refer to about today's situation of nursing documentation in connections with practise and valid legislative.

The empirical part of thesis to make test investigation by internal audit in Hospital Chrudim, which is specialize in administration of nursing documentation. Internal audit was made at standard wards neurology, surgery, internal and ward of resulting care.