

Legal aspects of tourism and sport in Krkonoše mountains national park

Abstract

This presented thesis analyse law regulation concerning protection of National Parks in against negative Influence of tourism and sport. Assessing impact of tourism on essential pillars (principles) of sustainable development I tried to find out if the preservation and protection of national Parks in The Czech Republic within Czech legislation is adequate.

Content of the thesis of eight chapters is definition of terminology used in this thesis, listing of sources of legal regulation and means of protection of nature at National Parks and comparison of specific legal regulation of KRNAP and KPN.

At the end of thesis the essential findings of the analyses are summarised.

The aim of this thesis is to find a compromise between effective legal regulation and over-regulation of tourist and sport activities in National Parks.

Key words: national park, tourism, legal protection, environment